South Oxhey Central Phase 3A

Space to enjoy life

South Oxhey Central's newest collection of one, two and three bedroom apartments take connection and convenience to a whole new level thanks to its excellent location. The development is situated adjacent to Carpenders Park train station, providing the very best of small town and big city living right on your doorstep.

Never far from desirable destinations, it is less than a 10-minute drive or train journey to Watford High Street where you can enjoy a wide range of up-and-coming bars and restaurants, stylish shops, and practical amenities. You can also access London Euston in under 30 minutes, where the capital is waiting to be explored.

A thriving community

Fresh energy

South Oxhey Central sits right in the heart of a growing community largely comprising of young professionals and first-time buyers. The development's proximity to the train station allows for a quick and easy commute into central London and exceptional access to the national rail services.

This latest release of new homes benefit from fantastic amenities. Residents have conveniences at every turn, notably a new Lidl supermarket and a Nisa Local convenience store both located on the ground floor of the development, as well as an inspiring office and retail hub on site providing creative workspaces and new shops. Equally nearby is South Oxhey Leisure Centre: an ideal space for fitness and wellness enthusiasts to make use of the extended gym, choice of two swimming pools, studios, and café area.

For modern living

Designed with intention

All homes greet you with Amtico Spacia sash oak flooring and feature a stylishly open-plan kitchen and living area with plenty of space, adjoining a generous private balcony ensuring all residents have access to outdoor space, ideal for the summer months.

Fully equipped with modern day necessities, the apartments have been designed to include features that provide comfort and connection, such as: TV wired access and BT connection and USB outlets. Each property comes with a suite of integrated white goods and other high-quality finishes that elevate everyday living.

Getting around

On the move

Whether you are commuting to work, heading to a restaurant, or watching a football game, South Oxhey Central is perfectly positioned from Carpenders Park station, granting you access to the entire TFL network, right on your doorstep.

For journeys further afield, access to the M25 is conveniently located only a 20 minute drive away, while international and internal flights from Luton and Heathrow airports are a short half an hour drive respectively.
